

Sensory articles

Experience articles are used to confirm the body awareness and existence of the individual in persons with dementia by giving them as many sensory stimuli as possible.

 Colours and designs may differ (squeeze figure not included, sold separately 31801)*

Md 31842^{TS}

Cover for sensory lap blanket, in qual. 1010, washable, with belt, sewn in balls, bells and buttons, a ring to attach something personal, Close-up zipper, press stud tape on the inside (can be combined with 31843 PU weighted blanket).

Purpose :

- Tactile stimulation.

Instructions for use:

Place the sensory blanket over the upper legs and tie the belt with a simple knot at the user's back.

Quality: 1010, permanently flame-retardant, breathable material, high tear resistance

Washing instructions for sensory articles:

1. Washing Wash at 60°C.
2. Dry Dry short at low temperature in the drier or dry hanging..

